June 6, 2009 was the Sherburne County Pheasants Forever Kids Day. About 100 youth were introduced to sporting clays, duck & goose calling, fish casting, dog training & retrieving, target shooting at the 22 rifle range all under the strict supervision of the dozens of adult volunteers who participated to guarantee a fun and safe Kids Day at Wild Marsh. The kids also enjoyed free hotdogs and souvenir T-shirts. Dozens of kids also were awarded prizes during the door prize drawing, thanks to the many donations from local businesses.

June 27, 2009 we celebrated 20 year anniversary of Wild Marsh, 1989—2009, with plenty of shooting fun which included an SCTP youth shoot with 42 young people ages 11—18 yrs. Every shooter received an commemorative 20th Anniversary Wild Marsh T shirt as a token of appreciation for 20 years in business. The celebration brought back a dozen past employees, members, guests, friends new & old to join in the fun. The day concluded with the live band, Corridor until midnight. A special thanks to Team Giver' for enduring till the end.
